			Under what circumstances would the Exchange relax the disclosure requirement?	this exemption for VSDs. We would consider, for example, whether the issuer has access to the disposal target's books and records to prepare the required information, and whether the circular has provided shareholders with sufficient information about the disposal, etc. We will give the exemption case by case.
	Transaction involving an acquisition and a disposal
9.	14.24	19.24	Under the amended rule, if a transaction involves a major acquisition and a discloseable disposal, does it mean that only the acquisition and not the disposal requires shareholder approval?	The rule amendment only clarifies the content requirements for the circular. It does not change the requirement as to how to classify a transaction as a whole to determine whether shareholder approval is required. In the circumstances described, the transaction as a whole would be classified as a major transaction and requires shareholder approval.
10.	14.24	19.24	Listco proposes to sell its interest in a subsidiary in return for cash and the buyer's interest in a target (the Transaction). Accordingly if, for whatever reason, the Exchange is open for the business of dealing in securities for only half day, it is counted as a business day. Note: Rule reference updated in July 2014.
