Do you agree that the Hong Kong market should not adopt a model without a halt in trading after the release of PSI during trading hours (i.e. the UK model as described in tra of to one pra to] wil	e think that listed companies should have the option of releasing PSI without a ding halt or of requesting a trading halt before the issue of PSI. Existing use the former option in Hong Kong by certain dually listed companies, at least e of which is heavily traded in Hong Kong, would suggest that it does not in actice result in retail investors being disadvantaged by having unequal access PSI. The latter option would be useful where a listed company knows that it I shortly be releasing PSI but cannot do so immediately because, for instance, terms of a transaction are still being finalised.
