Status of “Frequently Asked Questions”

The following frequently asked questions (FAQs) are designed to help issuers to understand and comply with the Listing Rules, particularly in situations not explicitly set out in the Rules or where further clarification may be desirable.

Users of the FAQs should refer to the Rules themselves and, if necessary, seek qualified professional advice. The FAQs are not substitutes for the Rules. If there is any discrepancy between the FAQs and the Rules, the Rules prevail. Defined terms used herein have the same meaning as ascribed to them in the relevant Rules and guidance.

In formulating our “responses”, we may have assumed certain underlying facts, selectively summarised the Rules or concentrated on one particular aspect of the question. They are not definitive and do not apply to all cases where the scenario may at first appear similar. In any given case, regard must be had to all the relevant facts and circumstances.

The Listing Department may be consulted on a confidential basis. Contact the Listing Department at the earliest opportunity with any queries.

Chief Executive
8.	1.01	1.01	Does “chief executive” in these Rules mean “chief executive officer”? Or does it also refer to chief financial officer, chief operations officer, etc.?	The definition of chief executive is set out in the Rules: “a person who either alone or together with one or more other persons is or will be responsible under the immediate authority of the board of directors for the conduct of the business of a listed issuer”.

10D.	3.10(2)	5.05(2)	Can a solicitor be said to have appropriate professional qualifications, or does the individual need to have the appropriate experience?	A legal qualification is not considered to be an appropriate professional qualification even if the person has obtained some accounting knowledge in the course of their studies. A person with a legal qualification is acceptable if the person has the “appropriate accounting and related financial management expertise” required under the Rules. 10F.	3.10(2)	5.05(2)	Is experience with a non-public company acceptable as having the appropriate accounting and related financial management expertise?	Generally no, but the Exchange recognises that experience and scope of duties of a candidate may demonstrate that the individual is capable of discharging the role required of such person as set out in Main Board Rule 3.10(2)/ GEM Rule 5.05(2). It is up to the board to evaluate the totality of the individual's experience and education to consider if the individual is acceptable. (Previously published in FAQ Series 1 No.6) (Updated on 28 December 2018)

The time commitment required from a director varies from issuer to issuer and from year to year, depending on the issuer's operations. A NED's time commitment to the issuer is likely to be less than an ED's because a NED is not involved in the day-to-day running of the business. According to the Code, the issuer should determine how much time it needs from each of its directors and review whether the director is meeting that requirement. You may refer to the Guide and Directors' ETraining webcast entitled "INEDs' Role in Corporate Governance". (Updated on 1 January 2022)

Where, in order to meet the Rule requirements, a director needs to comply with any relevant cooling off period under the Rules, the relevant cooling off period needs to have ended by the date on which the individual confirmation of independence is given. An announcement will need to be made for the re-designation from being a NED to an

11E.	3.13(3) and (4)	5.09(3) and (4)	For INEDs who fulfilled a one-year cooling off period and were appointed prior to 1 January 2019, would they be allowed to stay on if, on 1 January 2019, they are short of a two-year cooling off period provided they would be able to meet all other independence factors?	In respect of the revised two-year cooling off period for professional advisers, the revised Rule (Main Board Rule 3.13(3) and (4) / GEM Rule 5.09(3) and (4)) will be grandfathered for INEDs appointed in 2018. It means that, if an INED was elected at an AGM held in 2018 at which time the INED had met the one-year cooling off period for a professional adviser, the INED may stay on even if the INED would not meet the new two-year cooling off requirement as at 1 January 2019. 12.	3.25	5.34	Can the issuer's staff and executive directors be appointed as members of the remuneration committee as long as the committee is chaired by an INED and the majority of its members are INEDs?	Yes. The Rules do not restrict issuers from appointing their staff or executive directors to act as members of the remuneration committee, as long as a majority of the remuneration committee are INEDs and it is chaired by an INED. However, the staff or executive directors must avoid actual or potential conflicts of interest. As the company secretary of a Hong Kong issuer, this person should also undergo training on Hong Kong rules and regulations. However, the Exchange does not prescribe specific types of courses that a company secretary should attend, as long as they are relevant to their professional duties. If the training courses are of a general nature (e.g. a course on corporate governance), and not specifically on any PRC rules and regulations, then they may count towards the 15-hour training requirement. (Updated on 28 December 2018)

Issuers should take out appropriate insurance cover in respect of the possible legal liabilities that directors may face. What is appropriate is up to the individual issuer. For example, directors of a large multi-national company may need a higher degree of insurance coverage than an issuer based locally. It also depends on other factors such as the nature of the issuer's business. The board of each issuer should consider its own risks and take out appropriate directors' liability insurance accordingly.  (Previously published in Series No. 21 No. 1)
