Status of “Frequently Asked Questions”

The following frequently asked questions (FAQs) are designed to help issuers understand and comply with the Listing Rules, particularly in situations not explicitly set out in the Rules or where further clarification may be desirable.

Users of the FAQs should refer to the Rules themselves and, if necessary, seek qualified professional advice. The FAQs are not substitutes for the Rules. If there is any discrepancy between the FAQs and the Rules, the Rules prevail.

In formulating our “answers”, we may have assumed certain underlying facts, selectively summarised the Rules or concentrated on one particular aspect of the question. They are not definitive and do not apply to all cases where the scenario may at first appear similar. In any given case, regard must be had to all the relevant facts and circumstances.

The Listing Division may be consulted on a confidential basis. Please contact the Listing Division at the earliest opportunity with any queries.

What does the term "unusual features" mean? | Main Board Rules 10.05 and 10.06 (GEM Rules 13.03 to 13.14) set out the restrictions and notification requirements on share repurchases by listed issuers, including the specific disclosure requirements for an Explanatory Statement. The listed issuer's directors should determine whether the Explanatory Statement or the proposed share repurchase has unusual features having regard to the specific requirements under the Rules, the listed issuer's own circumstances, and features of share repurchase proposals which by virtue of their very frequent occurrence can be regarded as common or usual features of such proposals. The listed issuer should consult the Exchange in advance if it is in any doubt as to whether or not any matters are unusual. |

|           |   |                     | made when a share option is granted or when it is accepted?   | requires an issuer to publish an announcement as soon as possible upon the granting of an option or award under a share scheme. Under Main Board Rule 17.01A (GEM Rule 23.01A), “grant” is defined to include “offer”. The issuer should therefore publish its announcement as soon as possible upon the offer of the option, whether or not it has been accepted. The intention of Rule 17.06A is to minimise opportunities to backdate share options or awards. (Updated in March 2009 and January 2023) |

Since the directors’ undertakings under the repealed Form 5B under the Main Board Rules (or the repealed Form 6A under the GEM Rules) have been codified into the Listing Rules, a director or supervisor who provides information to the Exchange which is false or misleading in a material particular, may be in breach of section 384 of the Securities and Futures Ordinance, and therefore subject to the criminal sanctions imposed by that section. [Updated in December 2023]                       |

| 60  | Appendix C3, Paragraph 7(d)(viii)       | 5.52(4)(h) | Please clarify the meaning of “beneficial ownership is transferred from another party by operation of law”.   | This refers to the situation where the transfer occurs automatically as a result of applicable laws rather than any act on the part of the relevant parties. For example, the director may be entitled to receive an interest in securities as a result of the laws governing intestacy or, where the director is a joint holder of securities, the director may obtain ownership of the securities if the other joint holder dies. |

| 63  | Appendix C3, Rule A.3                   | 5.56       | When should the black out period start if an issuer anticipates a delay in publishing its results announcement?   | The default position is that the latest any black out period can start is 60 days or 30 days before the intended reporting day for annual or interim results. This is so even if it expects that the publication date will be later than the deadline imposed by the Listing Rules.(Updated December 2023)   |
| 64  | Appendix C3, Rule A.3                   | 5.56       | An issuer has notified the Exchange of the commencement date of the black out period under paragraph (b) of Rule A.3 of Appendix C3 of the Main Board Rules (GEM Rule 5.56). If it later decides to postpone publication, should the black out period be based on the revised publication | No. The commencement date of the black out period does not change if the issuer decides to postpone publishing the results after it has notified the Exchange. The black out period will be extended and end on the date of publication.(Updated December 2023)  |
