HKEX neither accepts nor assumes any obligation in relation to publication of any Publication Information passing through the e-Submission System. HKEX has the right, but not the obligation, to refuse or remove the publication of any Publication Information at its Website or its server or block access over the Internet at its sole discretion and for whatever reason.
- (ii) The e-Submission User represents, warrants and undertakes to HKEX that any Publication Information submitted has, where applicable, been reviewed and cleared by SEHK prior to its submission for publication and that such Publication Information has been approved for publication by the listed issuer or new listing applicant on the purported behalf of which such Publication Information is submitted. No Publication Information submitted to HKEX may be withdrawn save with the permission of HKEX which shall be given at its sole discretion.
- (iii) All Publication Information provided by or on behalf of the e-Submission User to HKEX for publication on the Website shall be matters required to be published under the Exchange Listing Rules or the Takeovers Code, or otherwise as may be permitted by HKEX at its absolute discretion. The e-Submission User acknowledges that the e-Submission System should not be used to publish any information, communication or other material save as aforementioned, including without limitation, information, communication or other material of a general advertising or promotional nature.

6. Publication of information

- (a) Notwithstanding clause 5(b), HKEX shall have, without giving prior notice to the e-Submission User, the right to at any time after publishing any information, communication or other material on the Website, withdraw the information, communication or other material from the Website if, in the reasonable opinion of HKEX, it is inaccurate, incomplete, false, misleading, out-dated, defamatory, obscene, violates or is likely to violate any applicable laws or regulations or infringes or is likely to infringe any intellectual property rights of any third party or, unless permitted by HKEX at its absolute discretion, where the information, communication or other material is not required to be published under the Exchange Listing Rules or the Takeovers Code.

- (b) Notification and/or confirmation that a submission of Transaction Information or Publication Information has been received through the e-Submission System and confirmation that the Publication Information submitted has been published will be provided by HKEX or SEHK (as the case may be) by way of email or any other means which HKEX or SEHK considers appropriate.
- (c) For the avoidance of doubt and without prejudice or limitation to paragraph (a) above, nothing in these Terms and Conditions shall be construed as imposing upon HKEX an obligation to publish on the Website any Publication Information submitted to HKEX for publication pursuant to the requirements of the Exchange Listing Rules or the Takeovers Code.

7. Disclaimer of liability

- (a) The e-Submission User acknowledges that any use of or reliance upon any part of the e-Submission System shall be at its sole risk. The e-Submission User further acknowledges that use of the e-Submission System is provided on an "AS IS, AS AVAILABLE" basis and without warranty or condition of any kind, either express or implied.
- (b) HKEX, SEHK and all other Relevant Parties assume no responsibility of any kind for any submission or posting using or made through the e-Submission System. HKEX, SEHK and all other Relevant Parties shall not be liable or responsible (whether in tort, contract or otherwise) for any claim for any losses or damages of any kind (whether direct or indirect) whatsoever and howsoever arising from the use of or reliance upon the e-Submission System or any related system or software including any mishandling, omission, non-delivery, delay, negligent or unauthorised use of the e-Submission System or of the e-Submission User's registered user ID(s), user password(s), passwords to be used for submission of Publication Information and/or other e-Submission System related passwords.
- (c) In addition and without prejudice to the other situations (including those situations covered by the disclaimers contained in the disclaimer statement in any relevant pages of the e-Submission System and the Website):
 - (i) HKEX, SEHK and all other Relevant Parties accept no responsibility of any kind for the accuracy, completeness or reliability of the content or format of any Publication Information at any time before or after submission and posting of any such Publication Information. It is the sole responsibility of the e-Submission User to ensure that all Publication Information has, where applicable, been reviewed and cleared by SEHK and that such Publication Information has been approved for publication by the listed issuer or new listing applicant on behalf or on the purported behalf of which such Publication Information is submitted.

- (ii) HKEX, SEHK and all other Relevant Parties shall not be liable for any action taken or for any failure, hindrance or delay in the performance in whole or in part of HKEX's and SEHK's obligations under these Terms and Conditions if such action, failure, hindrance or delay arises out of causes beyond the control of HKEX and SEHK. Such causes may include, but shall not be limited to, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of a civil or military authority, embargoes, sanctions, fires, floods, explosions, accidents, labour disputes, mechanical breakdowns, computer or system failures or other failures of equipment, failures of or defects in computer or system software, computer damage due to unauthorised programming routines, unavailability of or restrictions on any communication media for whatever reason, interruptions of power supplies, any law, decree, regulation or order of any government, competent authority, supranational bodies or any court or tribunal and any other causes beyond the control of HKEX and SEHK.
- (d) The e-Submission User agrees and acknowledges that the exclusion or limitation of liability in these Terms and Conditions is reasonable for the protection of HKEX, SEHK and other Relevant Parties but, if for any reason under any applicable laws that the exclusion or limitation of certain types of liability may not be permitted, the liability of HKEX, SEHK and other Relevant Parties will be excluded or limited to the maximum extent permissible by the applicable laws.
- (e) The e-Submission User irrevocably and unconditionally agrees to defend, indemnify in full and hold HKEX and SEHK and all other Relevant Parties harmless from and against all liabilities, damages, claims, actions, costs and expenses (including legal fees) in connection with or arising out of the e-Submission User's breach of these Terms and Conditions and/or its improper use of the e-Submission System (except where HKEX or SEHK is guilty of anything not done or not omitted to be done in good faith on its part and where such act or omission directly causes such liabilities, damages, claims, actions, costs and expenses).
- (f) If HKEX and/or SEHK becomes aware of any facts, circumstances or matters which may result in a claim under the indemnity, it will promptly inform the e-Submission User of the same in writing. HKEX and/or SEHK will thereafter deal with such facts, circumstances or matters as it considers appropriate but will keep the e-Submission User fully and promptly informed of all matters relating thereto. HKEX and/or SEHK and the e-Submission User shall consult in good faith as to whether to seek to defend or to settle any law suit brought against HKEX and/or SEHK arising from such facts, circumstances or matters, save that HKEX and/or SEHK shall have the final decision. Where HKEX and/or SEHK elects to defend any such claim, the e-Submission User shall, at its expense, provide all such information and assistance and do all such acts and things as HKEX or SEHK may reasonably require in relation thereto. If HKEX and/or SEHK elects not to take any action, HKEX shall notify the e-Submission User in writing in which case, the e-Submission User shall be entitled, at its cost, to take such action as it deems appropriate in the circumstances and HKEX and/or SEHK shall provide such assistance, at the e-Submission User's cost, as the e-Submission User may reasonably request.

8. Intellectual property rights

- (a) Save for any intellectual property rights which the e-Submission User may have in relation to any Publication Information, the e-Submission User acknowledges that the contents and materials of the web pages of the e-Submission System (including the organisation and layout of the web pages) are proprietary to HKEX and the copyright and other intellectual property rights in them belong to HKEX.
- (b) The e-Submission User acknowledges that the e-Submission System and the related systems and software are proprietary to HKEX. The e-Submission User shall not tamper with, modify, decompile, reverse engineer or otherwise alter the web pages of the e-Submission System or any of the related software and the e-Submission User shall not attempt to gain unauthorised access to any part of the web pages of the e-Submission System. HKEX is entitled to deny the e-Submission User's access to all or any part of the e-Submission System if the e-Submission User performs any of the above acts or if HKEX at any time reasonably suspects that the e-Submission User has performed or attempted to perform any of them.

9. Modification, discontinuance or termination

- (a) HKEX reserves the right to modify or discontinue, temporarily or permanently, the e-Submission System (or any part or feature thereof) at any time after giving prior written notification to the e-Submission User if it is practicable, or otherwise, without any prior notification if such notification is not practicable. HKEX may terminate or suspend the e-Submission User's access to all or part of the e-Submission System with effect from any time as it considers appropriate for any reason including, without limitation, breach of these Terms and Conditions or any other terms or conditions as prescribed by HKEX from time to time. In particular, HKEX shall be entitled, in its sole discretion, to temporarily suspend all or part of the e-Submission System in order to upgrade or modify the e-Submission System or any related systems or software and/or to restrict the e-Submission User's access to and use of the e-Submission System where HKEX considers it reasonably necessary for the operation or maintenance of the e-Submission System or any related systems or software. HKEX, SEHK and all other Relevant Parties shall not be liable to the e-Submission User or any third party for any claims of any kind related to such termination, restriction or suspension of the e-Submission System.
