Sirple's Securities

As a small investor in HK for a no. of years, I always treasure the paper certificates of a listed co for a ample of reasons:

(a) It is easy for you to pass on to your family members to dispose of them or pass on to them as gift

(b) They can remind you of your investments easily

Should the proposal be accepted by the majority of investors, may I suggest that paper certificates only be available for elderly, say for those aged 70 or beyond.

Wishing you the best of the year of Tiger.

Yours faithfully,
