Yes

No

Please give reasons for your views.

For an experienced listed company director, a minimum of eight hours of training each year may not be necessary. After two years, he should receive a minimum of four hours of training

Please give reasons for your views.

The disagreement may involve human resources issues that are sensitive and confidential in nature and it may not in the best interest of the company to disclose the reasons.

No

Please give reasons for your views.

For reasons stated in Questions 4 & 5, we do not agree to include 5.2(e) & (f) as new terms of reference. We also propose to keep 5.2(d) as a RBP since it is impracticable for some companies to make succession planning for directors.

Yes

No

Please give reasons for your views.

We do not agree to make it a code provision for an existing board committee to perform the duties. We believe that it will be more appropriate to request issuers to assign its internal functional department(s) to perform the proposed duties and identify an employee/officer of the company in charge of the duties. The internal functional department(s) should report their work to the Board and submit a written summary of work done to the Board annually. Directors, including INEDs should have the right to request further information from the functional department(s) at any time if they consider necessary.

Question 41. Do you consider that this report (as described in paragraph 140 of the Consultation Paper) should be published as part of the issuer's corporate governance report?

Yes

No

A summary of work done by the functional department(s) and major issues identified is sufficient for disclosure purpose in the CG report, and it shouldn't be a code provision to require issuers to reproduce the report in the CG report
