The proposed responsibility statement seems repetitive and cumbersome. The word "complete" would imply that there is no omission; thus the last sentence would look redundant. We would suggest the following revised version:

"This document includes particulars given in compliance with the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited for the purpose of giving information with regard to the issuer. The directors collectively and individually accept full responsibility for the accuracy of the information contained in this document and confirm, having made all reasonable enquiries, that to the best of their knowledge and belief the information contained in this document is accurate and complete in all material respects and not misleading or deceptive~~there are no other facts the omission of which would make any statement herein misleading.~~"

If the Exchange does not agree, we would suggest the following alternative:

"This document includes particulars given in compliance with the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited for the purpose of giving information with regard to the issuer. The directors collectively and individually accept full responsibility for the accuracy of the information contained in this document and confirm, having made all reasonable enquiries, that to the best of their knowledge and belief the information contained in this document is accurate and complete in all material respects, and there are no other facts the omission of which would make any statement herein misleading or deceptive."
