

Please do not change the current trading hours for Hong Kong.

If you must change it, please limit the change to maybe opening it half an hour early.

And HK people must eat lunch. And HK restaurants must pay rent. Its the way of the world. One hour is not enough unless you plan to fix the unfixable problem of impossible traffic jams and impossible restaurant reservations during lunch in HK.