4. (For respondents representing your company's view)

If Changes (A) and (B) in the Proposal are adopted, does your company need to prepare for implementation? How much lead time would be required?

Section II: Auction Sessions

No change in the auction sessions except that they will move along with the CTS as follows:

- Morning auction sessions for securities market and index futures/options markets will become 09:00 to 09:30 and 08:45 to 09:15 respectively; and

6. If Change (B) is adopted, should the afternoon auction session remain 0.5 hours for Option 1 and Option 2? If not, what is your/your company's suggestion? Please state reason(s).

Section III: Other issues

7. Are there any other issues regarding the Proposal to change trading hours that HKEx should consider?

Lunch time is like timeout or halftime in ball games. It allows for review of strategy and also communication with clients. Lunch meeting in Chinese society is important way to do business. Unlike the US, local Chinese prefer to discuss business face to face over foods. Lunch is perfect for business meeting. Dinner is too formal. Reducing lunch time will affect our business. HKEX needs to understand longer trading hours does not necessary mean more volume. People trade shares when they think there are good investment opportunities. If the stocks trading on HEEX are not attractive, opening the exchange 24hrs will not generate any more business. Even if we align our trading hours with the mainland, there is no guarantee more mainland shares will come to Hong Kong. Less assume we can get offshore RMB share trading in Hong Kong, the difference in trading hours will not have much impact.

	Investors will adjust to Hong Kong trading hours, just like people in Hong Kong have no problem trading shares in Shanghai and Shenzhen at lunch time from 13:30 to 14:30.
