1. Do you agree that the Exchange should promote board diversity?

Yes

No

Please give reasons for your views.

The Consultation Paper does not seem to provide issuers with sufficient information for consideration of the cost of board diversity in that a greater emphasis is placed on its benefits without giving a more in-depth discussion on its potential drawbacks. The Consultation Paper has also not provided any in-depth discussion as to whether board diversity as applied overseas would be equally applicable to Hong Kong's own business environment in terms of the average size, businesses, and culture of local issuers and supply of appropriately qualified candidates. It is not entirely clear from the Consultation Paper whether the benefits of board diversity would definitely outweigh its costs. In any event, the issuer itself should be in the best position to choose the most suitable boardroom candidates from the available market in order to promote effective boardroom decision-making and to meet its specific business needs.
