

Thank you for your email. We are of course supporting the New Board and the technology startups around our office are the users and would definitely benefit from the New Board. We trust we'll be helping the tech startups applying for the New Board soon.

For any enquiries/assistance, please feel free to contact us.