Question 1

Do you agree with our proposal to introduce a new Code Provision (CP) under the Corporate Governance Code (CG Code) requiring issuers without an independent board chair to designate one independent non-executive director (INED) as a Lead INED to enhance engagement with investors and shareholders?

Yes

Please provide reasons for your views.

There is no harm arranging such a designation when necessary, such as at an occasion when an independent board committee has been established for certain rules matter and it has to explain further to the independent shareholders at general meetings.

Question 2(a)

Regarding continuous professional development for directors, do you agree with our proposal to make continuous professional development mandatory for all existing directors, without specifying a minimum number of training hours?

Yes

Please provide reasons for your views.

Continuous training is always important for directors.

Question 2(b)

Regarding continuous professional development for directors, do you agree with our proposal to require First-time Directors to complete a minimum of 24 hours of training within 18 months following their appointment?

No

Please provide reasons for your views.

Requiring first-time directors is a good proposal but 24 hours requirement is too much. 10 hours training is much more reasonable.

Question 2(c)

Regarding continuous professional development for directors, do you agree with our proposal to define “First-time Directors” to mean directors who (i) are appointed as a director of an issuer listed on the Exchange for the first time; or (ii) have not served as a director of an issuer listed on the Exchange for a period of three years or more prior to their appointment?

No

Please provide reasons for your views.

I only agree to the first limb of the definition. Setting three years for the second limb is too arbitrary and it doesn't have any basis at all.

Question 2(d)

Regarding continuous professional development for directors, do you agree with our proposal to specify the specific topics that must be covered under the continuous professional development requirement?

No

Please provide reasons for your views.

Please have trust in the independent judgement of directors as to what kinds of topics are useful for them to discharge their duties.

Yes

Please provide reasons for your views.

No

Please provide reasons for your views.

Question 8(a)

In relation to our proposal to introduce a “hard cap” of nine years on the tenure of INEDs, beyond which an INED will no longer be considered to be independent, do you agree with the proposed hard cap to strengthen board independence?

No

Please give reasons for your views.

It is basically wrong to use the number of years to judge the independence of an INED. Have you made any research on cases of listed companies that cause you to have the doubt on the independence of INEDs having to served for a company for nine years or above ? If no, why formed such a doubt ? Could I say that a person working in a certain company for nine years or above will lose his or her interest in that job and then performance will drop thereafter ? Of course not and it's wrong.

It will be an easy job to use a "magic" number to impose stricter requirement but please give us a valid and scientific reason for it. Simply using other stock exchanges' rules is not sufficient.

Question 8(b)

In relation to our proposal to introduce a “hard cap” of nine years on the tenure of INEDs, beyond which an INED will no longer be considered to be independent, do you agree that a person can be re-considered as an INED of the same issuer after a two-year cooling-off period?

No

Please provide reasons for your views.

As set out above, I do not agree to imposing the nine years requirement.

Question 8(c)

In relation to our proposal to introduce a “hard cap” of nine years on the tenure of INEDs, beyond which an INED will no longer be considered to be independent, do you agree with the proposed three-year transition period in respect of the implementation of the hard cap?
