Agree with the reasons set out in the consultation paper.

Yes

Please give reasons for your views.

Agree with the reasons set forth in the consultation paper.

Question 10

Do you agree that Grandfathered Greater China Issuers and Non-Greater China Issuers referred to in Question 9 above be allowed to retain their Non-compliant WVR and/ or VIE Structures (subsisting at the time of their dual primary listing in Hong Kong) even if, after their listing in Hong Kong, they are de-listed from the Qualifying Exchange on which they are primary listed?

Yes

Please give reasons for your views.

Agree with the reasons set out in the consultation paper.

In addition, we recommend that HKEx also establish a clear basis on which Grandfathered Greater China Issuers may voluntarily switch from a secondary listing to a primary listing while maintaining their existing waivers.

Grandfathered Greater China Issuers represent a limited number of companies for which the Hong Kong listing regime has been adapted to facilitate their migration to Hong Kong. This group represents some of the largest and most actively traded stocks in Hong Kong. We believe it is in the markets' interest that these stocks be primary listed, which would also facilitate their inclusion in Stock Connect.

Experience with the current secondary listing regime suggests that the qualification requirements for the Grandfather Greater China Issuers combined with a primary listing in a qualifying overseas jurisdiction and a Hong Kong listing with a well-considered set of waivers, results in a highly robust regulatory regime and strong shareholder protection.

Allowing these companies to voluntarily switch to primary listing will facilitate a more flexible and orderly transition rather than being triggered solely by exogenous events (i.e. trading volumes).

We understand that the intention of labeling a stock as secondary listed serves the purpose of putting investors on notice that certain differences apply to the listing regime of these companies. While allowing for this group of companies to be labeled as primary despite maintaining a greater breadth of waivers may have a limited impact in this regard, we believe it is greatly outweighed by the benefit to the market of having these companies primary listed. We believe that these companies are well understood by investors and that the modest differences in overall regulatory regime are recognized.

We therefore believe that it would be appropriate for Grandfathered Greater China Issuers which remain primary listed on a qualifying overseas exchange be permitted to convert to a primary listing while maintaining all the automatic and special waivers as a Chapter 19C issuer.
