Question 1

Do you agree that the subscription and trading of SPAC securities prior to a De-SPAC Transaction should be limited to Professional Investors only (see paragraph 149 of the Consultation Paper)?

No

Please give reasons for your views.

First, restriction to investors on the stock exchange would give rise more to market fragmentation, lack of liquidity rather than investor protection. In the long run, it is detrimental to the investor interests given the deficiency of the market

Second, HKEX is advised to take a look at the development and status quo fixed income bond market on the stock exchange.

Third, if investor protection is the overriding object, it should be achieved by other efficient means.

Question 2

Do you agree with the measures proposed in paragraphs 151 to 159 of the Consultation Paper to ensure SPAC's securities are not marketed to and traded by the public in Hong Kong (excluding Professional Investors)?

Please give reasons for your views.

Question 3a

Do you consider it appropriate for SPAC Shares and SPAC Warrants to be permitted to trade separately from the date of initial listing to a De-SPAC Transaction?

Yes

Please give reasons for your views.

Separation of the warrants from underlying shares will help split the risk (and more volatile) component from the SPAC investment.

In other words, risk-taking (or speculation) out of the inherent uncertainties in SPAC can be separated from the "trust" asset, which provides more investor protection.

Question 3b

As your answer to question 3a is "No", do you have any alternative suggestions?

Please set out any alternative suggestions below.

Question 4a

Would either Option 1 (as set out in paragraph 170 of the Consultation Paper) or Option 2 as set out in paragraph 171 to 174 of the Consultation Paper) be adequate to mitigate the risks of extraordinary volatility in SPAC Warrants and a disorderly market?

Option 2

Please give reasons for your views. Please provide further technical details if you suggest a different option.

VCM system has been proved by the market in the past few years. There is no reason why VCM cannot be applicable to SPAC warrant trading.

Question 4b

Do you have any other suggestions to address the risks regarding trading arrangements we set out in the Consultation Paper?

No

Please give any suggestions below:

Question 5

Do you agree that, at its initial offering, a SPAC must distribute each of SPAC Shares and SPAC Warrants to a minimum of 75 Professional Investors in total (of either type) of which 30 must be Institutional Professional Investors?

No

Please give reasons for your views.

Why 75 but not 50 or 100?

An arbitrary restriction on the number of the professional investors can only distort the market, for example, the non-uncommon practice of "harvest" headcounts in the previous IPO process for small-cap companies.

If HKEX agrees that SPAC is a market-innovation, it is advised to focus on "disclosure"-based regime. Namely, upon listing and trading of SPAC, its investor basis should be fully disclosed to the market. The infrastructure in Hong Kong will be able to support it, eg, the investor ID regime to be rolled out coming year.

Question 6

Do you agree that, at its initial offering, a SPAC must distribute at least 75% of each SPAC Shares and SPAC Warrants to Institutional Professional Investors?

No

Please give reasons for your views.

The same as question 5.

Question 7

Do you agree that not more than 50% of the securities in public hands at the time of a SPAC's listing should be beneficially owned by the three largest public shareholders?

Yes

Please give reasons for your views.

Question 8

Do you agree that at least 25% of the SPAC's total number of issued shares and at least 25% of the SPAC's total number of issued warrants must be held by the public at listing and on an ongoing basis?

Yes

Please give reasons for your views.

Question 9a

Do you agree that the shareholder distribution proposals set out in paragraphs 181 and

182 of the Consultation Paper will provide sufficient liquidity to ensure an open market in the securities of a SPAC prior to completion of a De-SPAC Transaction?

No

Please give reasons for your views.

You cannot have both sufficient liquidity ("fish") and restriction of certain investor categories ("bear-palm"). Take the HK-Zhuhai-Macau bridge as an example, you cannot expect sufficient traffic over the bridge, if you only allow tri-licensed cars (i.e., with licenses from HK, Macau and Guangdong).

Question 9b

Are there other measures that the Exchange should use to help ensure an open and liquid market in SPAC securities?

No

Please set out any suggestions for other measures below.

Less is more. HKEX has already have sufficient tools out of its current toolbox.

Question 10

Do you agree that, due to the imposition of restricted marketing, a SPAC should not have to meet the requirements set out in paragraph 184 of the Consultation Paper regarding public interest, transferability (save for transferability between Professional Investors) and allocation to the public?

No

Please give reasons for your views.

For publicly-traded securities, sufficient public interest (as well as shareholding) is a commonly accepted standard (threshold).

Question 11

Do you agree that SPACs should be required to issue their SPAC Shares at an issue price of HK$10 or above?

Yes

Please give reasons for your views.

Question 12

Yes

Yes

Please give reasons for your views.

Yes

Please give reasons for your views.

Question 15b

Yes

Please give reasons for your views.

Question 16

Do you agree that the Exchange must be satisfied as to the character, experience and integrity of a SPAC Promoter and that each SPAC Promoter should be capable of meeting a standard of competence commensurate with their position?

Yes

Please give reasons for your views.

Question 17a

Do you agree that the Exchange should publish guidance setting out the information that a SPAC should provide to the Exchange on each of its SPAC Promoter's character, experience and integrity (and disclose this information in the Listing Document it publishes for its initial offering), including the information set out in Box 1 of the Consultation Paper?

Yes

Please give reasons for your views.

Full and frank disclosure should be imposed.

Question 17b

Is there additional information that should be provided or information that should not be required regarding each SPAC Promoter's character, experience and integrity?

No

Please provide the details of any such information below.

the Exchange considers requiring a SPAC Promoter to provide an undertaking to the issuer that they will comply with these safeguards for the benefit of all existing and future minority shareholders; any circumvention of or non-compliance with these requirements under the Listing Rules be regarded as a contravention of the Securities and Futures (Stock Market Listing) Rules and/or the Securities and Futures Ordinance, so that the SFC retains the capacity to exercise its powers over listing applicants and issuers

Question 18

Do you agree that the Exchange, for the purpose of determining the suitability of a SPAC Promoter, should view favourably those that meet the criteria set out in paragraph 216 of the Consultation Paper?

Yes

Please give reasons for your views.

Question 19a

Do you agree that at least one SPAC Promoter must be a firm that holds a Type 6 (advising on corporate finance) and/or a Type 9 (asset management) license issued by the SFC?

No

Please give reasons for your views.

I would express strong objection against this requirement.

If HKEX believes the SPAC is a high risk product, what is the rationale behind to bundle a license corporation in such a high risk business? If Type 6 or Type 9 companies are involved, in which role would they play, as an agent or a principal? If as a principal, would that cause systematic risk to the financial industry? If as an agent, what's the point of involving licensed corporation? Just as conduit or shell for and on behalf of investors behind?

If HKEX believes otherwise, it is again non-sense to involve a licensed corporation at all.

Do you agree that the SFC licensed SPAC Promoter must hold at least 10% of the Promoter Shares?

Please give reasons for your views.
