I went through the Joint Consultation Paper, and believed that the proposed change to the HKEX's decision-making and governance structure for listing regulation is appropriate, and is good for HK's role as international financial centre. Actually, the SFC should play more in protecting investors in HK when issuers make public offering of their securities, as the SFC is the only organization legally authorized to do so.

Thanks.

Ye Xiang Vision Gain Capital Limited