

06.09.2016

The proposals are better than the status quo, just not as good as Hong Kong deserves. When the proposals are adopted, the onus will be on the SFC to make them work and move forward with reforms to raise Hong Kong's game and help it build a stronger reputation as the world's premier investment destination