

03.10.2016

We support the reform proposals, including the formation of the Listing Policy Committee and the Listing Regulatory Committee, as a step towards the efficient market which Hong Kong and investors deserve. The conflicts of interest inherent in having regulatory functions under a for-profit entity are very apparent and very damaging. Maintenance of an efficient disclosure regime and comprehensive library and institutional memory are matters of public interest and should receive more attention.

Apollo Investment Management Ltd