CHAPTER VI

EXCHANGE PARTICIPANTS AND THEIR CLIENTS

Minimum Margins

- 617. (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this Rule or for the purpose of closing out a Client's open positions or as the Exchange may from time to time prescribe, generally or otherwise, no Exchange Participant shall transact F.O. Business for any Client until and unless the Exchange Participant has received from that Client collateral adequate to cover that Client's minimum margin requirement.
 - (b) Subject to procedures prescribed by the Exchange from time to time, in respect of an established Client who has demonstrated a record of consistently meeting margin obligations and maintaining a sound financial position ("established Client") and who has represented to the Exchange Participant that the funds necessary to fully satisfy his margin obligations will be immediately transmitted, the Exchange Participant may transact F.O. Business for the established Client even though the Exchange Participant has not received from him collateral adequate to cover his minimum margin requirement provided that:
 - (i) if a new position is established on behalf of the established Client during the T Session on any Business-Trading Day, the Exchange Participant must issue a call for the amount of minimum margin within that Business Trading Day; if a new position is established on behalf of the established Client during the T+1 Session on any Business Trading Day, the Exchange Participant must issue a call for the amount of minimum margin within the next Business Trading Day;
 - (ii) the Exchange Participant must advise the established Client that the minimum margin is due as soon as practicable after the call but in no event later than the next BusinessTrading Day offollowing the T Session or T+1 Session during which the new position is established; and

Monitoring Margin Calls, Demands for Variation Adjustment and Physical Delivery Contracts Delivery Obligations

- 619. (a) Exchange Participants are obliged to monitor continuously their Clients' ability to meet any margin calls and demands for variation adjustment.
 - (b) Each Exchange Participant shall forthwith notify the Chief Executive in the event any Client has failed to meet two or more successive margin calls or demands for variation adjustment which in aggregate exceed HK$150,000. Such notification shall include details of the account number(s) and (where relevant) the number of Exchange Contracts in respect of which default has been made and the market(s) in which they were transacted.

日KEX 香港交易所

- (c) The Chief Executive or any designated HKEX staff may require Exchange Participants to supply such further information in respect of accounts in respect of which default has occurred in the payment of margin or variation adjustment as he deems appropriate, including the name and Beneficial Identity of the relevant Client(s).
- (d) After the making of any notification pursuant to paragraph (b) of this Rule, the Exchange Participant shall submit to the Chief Executive or any designated HKEX staff details concerning any default by the Exchange Participant's Clients (including the details referred to in paragraph (b) of this Rule) on each Business-Trading_Day until the aggregate amount of default falls below the amount referred to in paragraph (b) of this Rule.

Trading Limits and Position Limits

- 629. (a) Subject to paragraph (e) of this Rule, the Chief Executive may from time to time in his absolute discretion and during such period as he thinks fit:-
 - (i) prescribe the maximum number or value of long or short Exchange Contracts in respect of any Market which any Exchange Participant is permitted to buy or sell in any Business-Trading Day (whether on its own behalf or on behalf of a Client) in respect of any one futures contract month or option series, or in respect of any number of futures contract months or option series combined; and/or
- 630. (a) (1) Subject to paragraph (e) of this Rule, if the Chief Executive is of the opinion that positions are being accumulated in a Market or Markets by or on behalf of any person or persons and the accumulation is or may be detrimental to any Market or Markets or is or may be capable of adversely affecting the fair and orderly operation of any Market or Markets, or (2) if the designated HKEX staff has grounds to believe that any person has failed to comply with its Large Open Position reporting requirements in respect of any Market or Markets, he may in his absolute discretion and during such period as he thinks fit:-
 - (i) prescribe the maximum number or value of long or short Exchange Contracts in respect of any Market which any Exchange Participant or Exchange Participants is/are permitted to buy or sell on behalf of such person or persons in any Business Trading Day in respect of any one futures contract month, option series or in respect of any number of futures contract months or option series combined; and/or
 - (b) Whenever the Chief Executive or any designated HKEX staff intends to impose a trading limit or position limit pursuant to this Rule, he shall give prompt notice in writing of that intention to the Clearing House and the Exchange Participant or Exchange Participants in question.

TRADING ARRANGEMENTS - PRACTICES AND SYSTEMS

Business Hours

803. Reserved

Error Trades

- 819B. If a trade takes place on HKATS at a level which deviates from the price parameters from time to time established by the Exchange and notified to Exchange Participants (the "Price Parameters"), the Exchange will entertain any claim from an original party to the trade that the price was in error. Unless such claim forms part of a claim for Large-Scale Error Trades (having the meaning assigned to it in Rule 819BA), it shall be entertained only in accordance with the following procedures:
 - (g) Within the next Business Trading Day of the T Session or T+1 Session during which any correction of Error Trade took place, the party initially requesting the correction shall submit to the Exchange a report setting out a detailed account of (i) the Error Trade committed; (ii) the reason for the Error Trade; and (iii) the measures that the party has implemented or will implement in order to prevent the occurrence of similar Error Trades in the future.

Large-Scale Error Trades

- 819BA. If the Error Trades claimed by an Exchange Participant are of such magnitude or complexity that any claim in respect of such Error Trades may have to be handled in accordance with this Rule 819BA ("Large-Scale Error Trades"), the Exchange will broadcast an alert on HKATS as soon as practicable that such trades may be subject to a Large-Scale Error Trade claim. If the Exchange in its absolute opinion determines, taking into consideration relevant factors such as the number of trades, counterparties, futures contract months and option series involved, that the claim should be handled as a Large-Scale Error Trade claim, the Exchange will entertain such claim in accordance with the following procedures:
 - (d) Within the next Business Trading Day of the T Session or T+1 Session during which any Large-Scale Error Trade took place, the party initiating the Error Trade claims shall submit to the Exchange a report setting out a detailed account of (i) the Error Trades committed; (ii) the reason for the Error Trades; and (iii) the measures that the party has implemented or will implement in order to prevent the occurrence of similar Error Trades in the future.

(e) For the handling of Large-Scale Error Trades pursuant to this Rule 819BA, the Exchange Participant which has initiated the relevant claims shall pay to the Exchange upon demand a fee of HK$3,000 per trade.

Holiday Trading Exchange Contracts

- 830. The Exchange may from time to time designate an Exchange Contract to be a Holiday Trading Exchange Contract and prescribe the public holidays on which such Holiday Trading Exchange Contract may be traded on or through the facilities of the Exchange. The Exchange may amend the list of Holiday Trading Exchange Contracts and the trading calendar for such Holiday Trading Exchange Contracts from time to time.
- 831. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Rules or any approval granted to an Exchange Participant to trade in any Market, if an Exchange Contract is designated as a Holiday Trading Exchange Contract by the Exchange, an Exchange Participant must obtain approval from the Exchange in order to trade or continue to trade the Holiday Trading Exchange Contract. To be approved to trade or continue to trade Holiday Trading Exchange Contracts, an applicant Exchange Participant shall apply in writing to the Exchange and demonstrate initially and on a continuous basis to the satisfaction of the Exchange its ability to comply with the following requirements and such other requirements as may be prescribed by the Exchange from time to time:
 - (a) be an HKCC Participant or have an agreement with an HKCC Participant registered with the Clearing House under the category "General Clearing Participant" for the clearing of trades in Holiday Trading Exchange Contracts of the Exchange Participant;
 - (b) have demonstrated and confirmed its system and operational readiness for the trading and, where applicable, the clearing of Holiday Trading Exchange Contracts;
 - (c) comply with the requirements of reporting its Large Open Positions in Holiday Trading Exchange Contracts in such form and with such frequency as may from time to time be prescribed by the Exchange and procure its Clients to comply with the contract limits and reporting requirements prescribed by the Commission under the Ordinance or otherwise for Holiday Trading Exchange Contracts.

CHAPTER IX

EMERGENCY AND EXTRAORDINARY SITUATIONS

901. (a) The Exchange shall be open on every Business-Trading Day unless there is a suspension of trading in accordance with the following provisions of this Rule.

CHAPTER XVI

DESIGNATED INDEX ARBITRAGE TRANSACTIONS AND STOCK FUTURES HEDGING TRANSACTIONS

- 1605. A Designated Index Arbitrage Participant, or a Designated Index Arbitrage Participant on behalf of a registered arbitrageur, may purchase or sell a Designated Stock Index Futures Contract for the purpose of rebalancing a Designated Index Arbitrage Transaction. The Exchange may at any time limit the number of contracts or the total value of contracts purchased or sold as part of the rebalancing of a Designated Index Arbitrage Transaction. A Designated Index Arbitrage Participant shall notify the Exchange, in such manner as prescribed by the Exchange from time to time, if the total value of contracts purchased or sold for the purpose of rebalancing a Designated Index Arbitrage Transaction in one Business Trading Day exceeds 4% of the total value of the Designated Index Arbitrage Transaction (valued as at the previous Business Trading Day).
- 1616. Each Exchange Participant shall, and shall procure that the Designated Stock Futures Hedging Short Selling Participant which it has designated to conduct Stock Futures Hedging Transactions on SEHK on its behalf shall, ensure that, at all times, the extent to which the Tick Rule Exemption may be claimed by a Designated Stock Futures Hedging Short Selling Participant in respect of Stock Futures Hedging Short Selling of shares underlying a particular Stock Futures Contract conducted for the account of each Stock Futures Hedging Participant shall be subject to a maximum hedging limit. For the purpose of Stock Futures Hedging Transactions, the maximum hedging limit for each Stock Futures Contract equals 1.1 multiplied by the number of contracts held by the Stock Futures Hedging Participant in the Stock Futures Contract which are not hedged by an offsetting transaction multiplied by the Contract Multiplier of the Stock Futures Contract. Positions in such Stock Futures Contract which are not hedged by offsetting transactions cannot be carried forward to the next Business Trading Day for the calculation of the maximum hedging limit, unless they have been reported to the Exchange in such manner as prescribed by the Exchange from time to time. Under no circumstances shall a position in Stock Futures Contract which is not hedged be carried forward for more than one Business Trading Day for the calculation of the maximum hedging limit.
- 1617. Each Exchange Participant shall keep as part of its records and make available to the Exchange or the Commission for inspection when requested to do so and within such period of time as specified in the request, all information regarding Stock Futures Hedging Transactions of the Stock Futures Hedging Participants registered through it, including but not limited to the following:
 - (i) details of each component comprising a hedging portfolio, whether such component relates to a Stock Futures Contract, securities or any other type of instrument;
 - (ii) the positions, whether long or short, of each component comprising the hedging portfolio at the beginning and at the close of each $\pm \underline{T}$ rading \underline{dD} ay; and
 - (iii) any other particulars as may be prescribed by the Exchange from time to time.
