“business day” means a day other than a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday in Hong Kong;

The definitions of “Extreme Conditions” has been repealed.

CHAPTER 5

TRADING

Operational Trading Rules

Day-end Review of Sales/Purchases

528. (2) If an emergency as stipulated in Rule 572 occurs, the Board may in its absolute discretion extend or vary the time within which any discrepancy, erroneous transaction or complaint should be reported to the Exchange.

563S. [Repealed]

571. [Repealed]

Emergency

572. If in the opinion of the Chief Executive, the Board or the HKEX board an emergency (including but not limited to fire, epidemic or other casualty or accident, severe weather conditions, earthquake, natural disaster, power failures, communications breakdowns, computer malfunction, war, riot, civil commotion, labour strike, terrorist attack and other similar events) is imminent or threatened or has occurred or developed, and in consequence no orderly trading of securities on the Exchange can take place, the Chief Executive (with prior reference to the Board) and the Board shall have full authority (in consultation with the Commission) to suspend trading and to take such other action as the Chief Executive and the Board may, in their absolute discretion, deem necessary or appropriate to deal with such emergency or as directed by the HKEX board. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Chief Executive may suspend trading under this Rule without prior reference to the Board if, but only if, in his opinion it is not possible for a meeting of the Board to be convened immediately. The Chief Executive may not otherwise suspend trading under this Rule and whenever trading is suspended by the Chief Executive without prior reference to the Board in accordance with this Rule, he shall arrange for a meeting of the Board to be held as soon as practicable after trading has been suspended. Under no circumstances shall the Exchange or HKEX be responsible for damages arising from any such emergency or any action taken by the Exchange in respect thereof.

CHAPTER 14

CHINA CONNECT SERVICE

Operational Hours of the China Connect Service

1415. (1) The Exchange has absolute discretion to determine from time to time the operational hours of the China Connect Service. The Exchange will prescribe the operational hours and related arrangements of the China Connect Service by making rules or through publication on the HKEX website or such other means as the Exchange considers appropriate. Different operational hours and arrangements may be prescribed in respect of different China Connect Markets.
- (2) The Exchange has absolute discretion to change the operational hours and arrangements of the China Connect Service at any time and without advance notice, whether on a temporary basis, due to operational needs, inclement weather, under emergency situations or otherwise. Except in the case of emergency, changes will be announced on the HKEX website or through such other means as the Exchange considers appropriate.
1439. If, in the opinion of the Chief Executive, the Exchange or the relevant SEHK Subsidiary (after consulting the Exchange), the operation or functioning of the China Connect Service in respect of a China Connect Market or any part thereof is, or is likely to be, severely or adversely threatened or affected by an emergency (including but not limited to fire, epidemic or other casualty or accident, severe weather conditions, earthquake, natural disaster, power outage, communications breakdown, system failure, computer malfunction, war, riot, civil commotion, labour strike, terrorist attack, material change of law or issue of any governmental or regulatory order, decree or judgment or other similar events) having significant impact on the continuous operation of the China Connect Service, the CSC, a China Connect Market System or a China Connect Market Operator, the Chief Executive (with prior reference to the Board), the Exchange and the relevant SEHK Subsidiary (after consulting the Exchange) shall have full authority (in consultation with the Commission) to suspend the China Connect Service and to take such other actions, steps or measures in relation to the China Connect Service, the CSC or otherwise, as they may deem necessary or appropriate to deal with such emergency. For the avoidance of doubt, in order to deal with an emergency, the Exchange shall have full authority to suspend or restrict access to or the use of the China Connect Service in respect of any China Connect Market or any part thereof, change the relevant operational hours and related arrangements, or cancel or request for the cancellation of any or all China Connect orders input by any or all China Connect Exchange Participants, irrespective of whether such China Connect orders have already been routed to the relevant China Connect Market System. Under no circumstances shall the Exchange or the relevant SEHK Subsidiary be responsible for damages arising from any such emergency or any action taken by the Exchange and the relevant SEHK Subsidiary in respect thereof.
