

Rules of the Exchange

CHAPTER 1

INTERPRETATION

101. In these Rules, unless the context otherwise requires:-

~~“basket order”~~ means a basket of special limit orders (all being buy orders or sell orders) which satisfies the criteria prescribed under Rule 502C input into the System at one time by one single input for automatic order matching;

“enhanced limit order” means a buy order or a sell order with a specified price input into the System during the Continuous Trading Session for automatic order matching during that session as follows:-

(a) in relation to a buy order -

- (i) (as soon as the order is accepted by the System for automatic order matching) within the range and in the sequence of first at the current ask price and thereafter at the next higher price up to ~~four~~nine spreads above the current ask price or the specified price whichever is lower;
- (ii) (if matching does not take place or if any part of the order remains unmatched under (a)(i) above) the order or the remaining part of the order will be treated as a limit order with the specified price;

(b) in relation to a sell order-

- (i) (as soon as the order is accepted by the System for automatic order matching) within the range and in the sequence of first at the current bid price and thereafter at the next lower price down to ~~four~~nine spreads below the current bid price or the specified price whichever is higher;
- (ii) (if matching does not take place or if any part of the order remains unmatched under (b)(i) above) the order or the remaining part of the order will be treated as a limit order with the specified price;

“special limit order” means a buy order or a sell order with a specified price input into the System during the Continuous Trading Session for automatic order matching during that session as follows:-

(a) in relation to a buy order –

- (i) (as soon as the order is accepted by the System for automatic order matching) within the range and in the sequence of first at the current ask price and thereafter at the next higher price up to ~~four~~nine spreads above the current ask price or the specified price whichever is lower;
- (ii) (if matching does not take place or if any part of the order remains unmatched under (a)(i) above) the order or the remaining part of the order will be cancelled automatically;

(b) in relation to a sell order –

- (i) (as soon as the order is accepted by the System for automatic order matching) within the range and in the sequence of first at the current bid price and thereafter at the next lower price down to ~~four~~-nine spreads below the current bid price or the specified price whichever is higher;
- (ii) (if matching does not take place or if any part of the order remains unmatched under (b)(i) above) the order or the remaining part of the order will be cancelled automatically;

CHAPTER 5

TRADING

Basket Order

- 502C. ~~[Repealed]~~
- (1) ~~An Exchange Participant can only input a basket order into the System through its BSS during the Continuous Trading Session.~~
  - (2) ~~The Exchange has the right at any time to direct an Exchange Participant not to input any basket order into the System on such terms and for such period as the Exchange thinks fit.~~
  - (3) ~~An Exchange Participant shall, when inputting a basket order, indicate in such manner as the Exchange shall from time to time determine, that the order is a basket order, and comply with such requirements as the Exchange shall from time to time prescribe.~~
  - (4) ~~An Exchange Participant inputting a basket order into the System through its BSS must ensure that the basket order satisfies the following criteria:~~
    - ~~(a) the basket order must only comprise special limit orders (all being buy orders or sell orders) in respect of the constituent stocks of Hang Seng Index or other indexes as prescribed by the Exchange from time to time, in the minimum and maximum number of such constituent stocks as prescribed by the Exchange from time to time;~~
    - ~~(b) the aggregate percentage of the weighting of all the constituent stocks of the special limit orders comprising the basket order in the relevant underlying index (as at the close of trading on the previous trading day) must not be less than 90%, or other percentage as prescribed by the Exchange from time to time;~~
    - ~~(c) the percentage of the weighting of each constituent stock of any special limit order in the basket order must not deviate from its weighting in the relevant underlying index (as at the close of trading on the previous trading day) by more than 20%, or other percentage as prescribed by the Exchange from time to time; and~~
    - ~~(d) such other criteria as prescribed by the Exchange in consultation with the Commission from time to time.~~

506A. For quotations of any automatch stocks other than the opening quotation, a buy order (other than a buy auction order) may be made during the Continuous Trading Session as follows:-

- (1) (where there are existing buy orders and sell orders on the respective primary queues)-
  - (a) a limit order may be made at a price within the range of twenty-four spreads below the current bid price and the current ask price;
  - (b) an enhanced limit order may be made at a price within the range of twenty-four spreads below the current bid price and ~~four~~nine spreads above the current ask price; and
  - (c) a special limit order may be made at a price higher than or equal to the current ask price.
- (2) (where there is no existing buy order on the primary queue)-
  - (a) a limit order may be made at a price within the range of the current ask price and twenty-four spreads or, in the case of Market Making Securities, the number of spreads prescribed by the Exchange from time to time, below whichever is the lowest of the current ask price, the previous closing price and the lowest transacted price of the day;
  - (b) an enhanced limit order may be made at a price within the range of ~~four~~nine spreads above the current ask price and twenty-four spreads or, in the case of Market Making Securities, the number of spreads prescribed by the Exchange from time to time, below whichever is the lowest of the current ask price, the previous closing price and the lowest transacted price of the day; and
  - (c) a special limit order may be made at a price higher than or equal to the current ask price.

507A. For quotations of any automatch stocks other than the opening quotation, a sell order (other than a sell auction order) may be made during the Continuous Trading Session as follows:-

- (1) (where there are existing buy orders and sell orders on the respective primary queues)-
  - (a) a limit order may be made at a price within the range of twenty-four spreads above the current ask price and the current bid price;
  - (b) an enhanced limit order may be made at a price within the range of twenty-four spreads above the current ask price and ~~four~~nine spreads below the current bid price; and
  - (c) a special limit order may be made at a price lower than or equal to the current bid price.
- (2) (where there is no existing sell order on the primary queue)-
  - (a) a limit order may be made at a price within the range of the current bid price and twenty-four spreads or, in the case of Market Making Securities, the number of spreads prescribed by the Exchange from time to time, above whichever is the highest of the current bid price, the previous closing price and the highest transacted price of the day;

- (b) an enhanced limit order may be made at a price within the range of ~~four~~nine spreads below the current bid price and twenty-four spreads or, in the case of Market Making Securities, the number of spreads prescribed by the Exchange from time to time, above whichever is the highest of the current bid price, the previous closing price and the highest transacted price of the day; and
- (c) a special limit order may be made at a price lower than or equal to the current bid price.
