PART II FORM OF SECURITIES, SECURITIES HOLDINGS AND REGISTRY

3. Form of securities

Hong Kong currently is a certificated securities market. Securities of companies listed on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited ("SEHK") are issued in physical scrip, which are in registered and definitive form.

Please describe the form in which the Company intends to issue the securities in Hong Kong:

- physical scrip; or
- scripless/book entry. Please advise whether it is mandatory to issue in scripless form.

Yes No

If answer is "Yes", please advise the relevant law and requirement.

If answer is "No", please advise the reason for issuing in scripless form.

If "physical scrip" will be issued, it will be in:

- definitive form; or
- global form. Please advise the reason for issuing in global form; and

The certificate will be in:

- registered form; or
- bearer form. Please advise the reason for issuing in bearer form.

Note:

- (1) If the securities are in scripless or global form, securities listed/traded in Hong Kong will all be registered in the name of HKSCC's nominee, HKSCC Nominees Limited ("HKSCCN"). As a result, none of the securities will be registered in the name of individual investors in the Register of Members (i.e. White Application Forms should not be made available to investors who wish to apply for shares in the case of an initial public offering).

(2) If the securities are in bearer form, investor protection for lost or stolen certificates would be inferior as compared to that under registered form. Please provide sufficient disclosure in the listing document explaining the arrangements and addressing this risk faced by the investors and HKSCCN.
4. Holding through overseas depository If the securities to be listed/traded on the SEHK will be issued in scripless form and held in an overseas depository, please provide us with a diagram showing the holding structure of the securities in the relevant overseas market(s), with clear indication of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) how Hong Kong investors (through HKSCCN) will hold the securities; (ii) the financial intermediaries or depositories, which hold the securities on behalf of investors in Hong Kong. Please also specify the roles and responsibilities of these depositories/financial intermediaries under the overseas market's rules/regulations; and (iii) who will be recognised as the legal owner in the overseas market. In a separate diagram, please also explain how the securities can be transferred between the overseas market and the Hong Kong market (including the shunting process, agents involved, fees and turnaround time).
5. Legal title for securities holdings In Hong Kong, securities admitted and held in CCASS are all registered in the name of HKSCCN. If securities are in scripless form, please tick the appropriate box below: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> (1) The securities can be registered in HKSCCN's name and HKSCCN will have legal title to securities deposited into CCASS. <input type="checkbox"/> (2) HKSCCN will not be recognised as the registered holder of the securities and/or will not have legal title to the foreign securities held in CCASS. If you tick Box (2), please advise the reason with reference to the relevant laws, rules and regulations in the overseas market.
6. Recognition of beneficial ownership in the Company's securities under HKSCC's current clearing and custody model under the laws of the jurisdiction of incorporation of the Company Under HKSCC's current clearing and custody model for securities of issuers listed on SEHK, HKSCC, in its capacity as the central securities depository, holds, through its nominee, HKSCCN, title to securities of companies listed on SEHK as the holder on record in a branch register of the company held in Hong Kong. HKSCC's clearing participants hold the beneficial interest in such securities in their CCASS stock accounts opened with HKSCC. When a sale/purchase transaction in respect of such securities is made on SEHK, a transfer of proprietary interest in such securities amongst HKSCC's clearing participants is effected by way of book entry transfer amongst CCASS stock accounts. (a) Do the laws of the Company's jurisdiction of incorporation recognise the concept of beneficial ownership in respect of securities of the Company? <input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No

Please set out the reasons supporting your conclusion. (b) (i) Please advise if the structure (outlined above) is accepted and recognised in the Company’s jurisdiction of incorporation. <input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No Please provide a reasoned response. (ii) and if the transfer of proprietary interests in the Company’s securities under such structure would be recognised in the Company’s jurisdiction of incorporation. <input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No Please provide a reasoned response. (c) Are there any legal impediments under the laws of the Company’s jurisdiction of incorporation to the creation of security interests over the proprietary interests held by a HKSCC’s clearing participant under the structure (outlined above) in favour of HKSCC pursuant to the provisions of the CCASS Rules (and ancillary HK law governed deed of charge)? <input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No Please elaborate, providing details of any perfection requirements and how they may be satisfied. IMPORTANT NOTE: The answers to the above questions must be supported by a legal opinion to be addressed to and relied upon by HKSCC and SEHK.
7. General Rules of CCASS (“CCASS Rules”) - Stock Admission Requirements Please confirm whether the right of HKSCC to rely on the following CCASS Rules would be adversely affected or restricted with regard to the Company’s securities to be listed/traded in Hong Kong: (i) CCASS Rule 402 which requires “Participants to act as principals”³. <input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No Please provide reasons for the answer. (ii) CCASS Rule 805 on “Representation and warranty of authority”, which specifies that “HKSCC shall be under no obligation to recognise any right or interest which any person other than the Participant may have in such Eligible Securities”. <input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No Please provide reasons for the answer.

³ CCASS Rule 402 stipulates that “So far as the rights and liabilities between HKSCC and each Participant are concerned, a Participant using any of the services of CCASS, whether by the Participant itself or through a person acting or purported to be acting with the authority of, on behalf of and/or for the account of the Participant, shall be treated as acting as principal, and not as agent, and shall be liable to HKSCC as such. In rendering its services, HKSCC shall be under no obligation to recognise any right or interest which any person, including SSA Statement Recipients and NCPs other than a Participant may have or claim to have in relation to all matters concerning CCASS or an Appointed Depository (including, without limitation, Eligible Securities deposited into CCASS or held by an Appointed Depository and transactions to be settled thereunder) and the operation thereof by HKSCC, provided that HKSCC may recognise any right or interest which a Recognised Clearing House may have or claim to have in relation to Eligible Securities deposited into CCASS by or for a Participant under or in connection with any charge or security interest granted in favour of the Recognised Clearing House by the Participant in respect of such Eligible Securities.”

8. Register of Members Please advise if the Hong Kong register of members will be the single principal register of members kept by the Company. <input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No If the answer is “Yes”, please proceed to Q12.
9. Please advise how many registers of members will be maintained. If more than one register of members will be maintained, please provide us with a diagram, indicating: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) the principal register and the sub-register or branch register or translated copy; (ii) where each of the registers of members will be kept; (iii) names of the registrar(s) maintaining the respective registers of members; and (iv) whose names will appear on the overseas register and whose names will appear on the Hong Kong register.
10. If the Hong Kong register of members is not the principal register of members, please advise: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) whether the law of the Company’s jurisdiction of incorporation recognises the Hong Kong branch register in the same way as the principal register. <input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No Please explain in detail the legal status of the Hong Kong register of members under the laws of the Company’s jurisdiction of incorporation. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (ii) whether the rights of ordinary shares held through the Hong Kong branch register are identical to the rights of ordinary shares held through the principal register. <input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No Please explain with reasons. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (iii) the procedures for updating each of the registers of members and reconciliation among the registers of members, and how frequent reconciliation will be conducted. (iv) if there are discrepancies between the principal register of members and the Hong Kong register of members, which one will prevail? How the courts of the Company’s jurisdiction of incorporation will deal with any discrepancies between holdings as recorded in the principal register and the Hong Kong branch register?
11. If there are any disputes on the title of the securities on the Hong Kong register of members, which jurisdiction’s law will be the governing law and why?

PART III SECURITIES HOLDING AND TRANSFERABILITY RESTRICTIONS, AND PROCEDURES FOR REPLACING LOST CERTIFICATES
