HKEX is the first exchange in Asia to launch Inline Warrants, a new type of structured product that provides investors with opportunities for generating returns during periods of low volatility. Investors will receive a pre-determined fixed payment of either HK$0.25 or HK$1 at expiry, depending on whether the underlying asset falls outside or inside the Upper and Lower Strikes.

Since Inline Warrants first started trading on HKEX on 18 July 2019, the number of new issues has rapidly grown from 45 to 157 as of 31 July 2019.
