Question 1.1(a)

Do you agree with our proposal to exclude securities that do not contribute to an open market in trading in Hong Kong from the calculation of the public float by requiring the public float percentage of securities new to listing be calculated normally by reference to the total number of securities of that class only (as set out in paragraph 44 of the Consultation Paper)?

Yes

Please give reasons for your views and any alternative suggestions.

Question 1.1(b)

Do you agree with our proposal to exclude securities that do not contribute to an open market in trading in Hong Kong from the calculation of the public float by in the case of a PRC issuer with no other listed shares, requiring the numerator of its public float percentage to be calculated by reference to its H shares only, such that any shares it has in issue that are in the class to which H shares belong would only be included in the denominator (as set out in paragraph 45 of the Consultation Paper)?

Yes

Please give reasons for your views and any alternative suggestions.

Question 1.1(c)

Do you agree with our proposal to exclude securities that do not contribute to an open market in trading in Hong Kong from the calculation of the public float by in the case of a PRC issuer with other listed shares (e.g. A shares listed on a PRC stock exchange), requiring the numerator of its public float percentage to be calculated by reference to its H shares only, such that any other listed shares it has in issue would only be included in the denominator (as set out in paragraph 45 of the Consultation Paper)?

No

Please give reasons for your views and any alternative suggestions.

By including shares in issue that are in other classes in the denominator, this calculation appears to contradict the principle set out under Q1(a) (or that set out in paragraph 44 of the Consultation Paper) which is that the public float percentage of securities new to listing should be calculated by reference to the total number of securities of that class only. The Exchange should clarify the reason why the abovementioned principle does not apply to situations as set out under Q1(c) and Q1(d).

Question 1.1(d)

Do you agree with our proposal to exclude securities that do not contribute to an open market in trading in Hong Kong from the calculation of the public float by in the case of an issuer with other share class(es) listed overseas, requiring the numerator of its public float percentage at listing to be calculated by reference to only the shares of the class for which listing is sought in Hong Kong, such that any shares of other classes it has in issue would only be included in the denominator (as set out in paragraph 46 of the Consultation Paper)?

No

Please give reasons for your views and any alternative suggestions.

By including shares in issue that are in other classes in the denominator, this calculation appears to contradict the principle set out under Q1(a) (or that set out in paragraph 44 of the Consultation Paper) which is that the public float percentage of securities new to listing should be calculated by reference to the total number of securities of that class only. The Exchange should clarify the reason why the abovementioned principle does not apply to situations as set out under Q1(c) and Q1(d).

In addition, the Exchange should clarify the rationale for specifically mentioning “other share class(es) listed overseas” and further clarify if overseas market includes PRC market.

Question 1.2

Yes

Please give reasons for your views and any alternative suggestions.

Question 3.3(b)

Question 3.5

Do you agree that the same tiered initial public float thresholds (as set out in Table 5 of the Consultation Paper) should be applied to GEM issuers?

Yes

Question 4.1(a)

If our proposed initial public float thresholds (see proposals in Section I.B.1 and Section I.D.1 of Chapter 1 of the Consultation Paper) are supported by the market, we seek views on the appropriate ongoing public float requirements for issuers, subject to the initial public float tiers proposed (see Table 5 in Section I.B.1 of Chapter 1 of the Consultation Paper). Please give reasons for your views and any alternative suggestions.

Question 4.2

Yes

Please give reasons for your views.

Question 4.5

Do you agree that an OTC market should be established in Hong Kong (as set out in paragraph 119 of the Consultation Paper)?

No

Please give reasons for your views and any alternative suggestions.

We are of the view that it is not very meaningful to establish an OTC market in Hong Kong, as OTC transactions already exist in the current market.

Question 4.6(a)

What are your views on the potential benefits and risks of establishing an OTC market? Please give reasons for your views.

The potential benefits are that there would be a higher level of clarity in regulating OTC transactions, enhanced market liquidity and diverse investment options in the market. Additionally, an OTC market can provide protection to market participants trading in OTC to a certain extent. On the other hand, the risk associated with the establishment of an OTC market is that it might be difficult to implement appropriate rules and regulations to supervise the OTC market.

Question 4.6(b)

What are your views on functions that an OTC market should serve? Please give reasons for your views.

OTC market should serve as a platform to facilitate trading that allows efficient price discovery and execution process. It should provide access to capital with diverse investment options for market participants. Such platform should also ensure transparency on relevant market data to enable market participants to make investment decisions.

Question 4.6(c)

What are your views on whether such OTC market should be open to retail investors? Please give reasons for your views.

No

Question 5.1

Do you agree with our proposal to mandate disclosure of actual public float in listed issuers' annual reports?

Yes

Please give reasons for your views and any alternative suggestions.

While we agree with the rationale behind mandating listed issuers to disclose their actual public float (i.e. to enhance transparency), we are of the opinion that mandating such disclosures in their annual reports render the disclosure lacking in reference value. This is because at the time of publishing annual reports, the information regarding public float of the issuers may be outdated already.

We are of the view that mechanisms requiring more timely disclosure, for example, regular online filings with the Exchange, would be more appropriate in achieving transparency.

Question 5.2

Do you agree with the details proposed to be disclosed (as set out in paragraph 126 of the Consultation Paper), including that only persons connected at the issuer level would be required to be identified on an individually named basis in the disclosure of shareholding composition (as set out in paragraph 126(b)(i)(1) and (2) of the Consultation Paper)?

Yes

Please give reasons for your views and any alternative suggestions.

Please also refer to our response to Question 5.1 for our views on the means of the public float disclosure.

Yes

Please give reasons for your views.

Question 6.2

Do you agree with our proposed initial free float thresholds (as set out in paragraph 140 of the Consultation Paper)?

No

Please give reasons for your views and any alternative suggestions.

We suggest that for threshold (a) in paragraph 140 in the Consultation Paper, the free float percentage requirement be set at 5% instead of 10%, such that the threshold reads as "...represents at least 5% of the number of shares in the relevant class for which listing is sought, with an expected market value of at least HK$50 million;".

Question 6.3

Do you agree with our proposed modification of the initial free float thresholds to PRC issuers (as set out in paragraphs 142 to 143 of the Consultation Paper)?

No

Please give reasons for your views and any alternative suggestions.

Similar to our response to question 6.2, we suggest that the relevant percentage requirement be set at 5% instead of 10% such that (i) threshold (a) for PRC issuer with no other listed shares in paragraph 142 of the Consultation Paper reads as "... represent at least 5% of the total number of issued shares in the class to which H shares belong, with an expected market value of at least HK$50 million;" and (ii) the threshold for PRC issuer with other listed shares reads as "...represent at least 5% of total number of H shares for the purpose of calculation of the free float percentage".

Yes

Question 9.2

Do you agree that the proposed requirement should not be applied to the initial listing of Specialist Technology Companies (as set out in paragraphs 229 of the Consultation Paper)?

Yes

Please give reasons for your views.

We agree that the requirement should not be applied to the initial listing of Specialist Technology Companies.

Question 10.1

Do you agree with the proposed removal of the guideline on minimum spread of placees, being not less than three holders for each HK$1 million of the placing, with a minimum of 100 holders in an IPO placing tranche (as set out in paragraph 230 of the Consultation Paper)?

Yes

Please give reasons for your views.

We agree with the stakeholders' and the Exchange's sentiment that the current placee spread requirement do not help optimize price discovery and is not meaningful in effect to maintain an adequate spread of investors. However, we are of the view that the complete removal of the placee spread requirement without implementation of any other additional measures or safeguards would defeat the original drafting intent of the guideline and lead to heavy concentration of holders in the placing tranche.

As such, we believe that the Exchange should either consider other measures instead of outright removal of the placee spread requirement. For example, lowering the number of minimum holders in placing tranche, or amending LR8.08(3) to the effect that the five largest public shareholders (instead of three) should hold not more than 50% of the securities in public hands at the time of listing.

Question 10.2

Do you consider that other safeguarding measures should be implemented to ensure an adequate spread of holders in the placing tranche, in light of the proposal (as set out in paragraph 230 of the Consultation Paper)?

Yes

Please give reasons for your views and any alternative suggestions.

Question 11.1

Do you agree with the proposal to require issuers to adopt either Mechanism A or Mechanism B with respect to a minimum allocation of offer shares to the public subscription tranche (as set out in paragraphs 248 to 250 of the Consultation Paper)?

Yes

Please give reasons for your views and any alternative suggestions.

While we agree with the proposal in theory, the Exchange should clarify the timing at which the choice of whether Mechanism A or Mechanism B is adopted (the “Mechanism Choice”) should be made. We are of the opinion that (i) if the Mechanism Choice is required to be made at an early stage, without enabling issuers to choose after taking into account the market condition, the Mechanism Choice will fail to serve its purpose to provide issuers with flexibility, and (ii) the Mechanism Choice could affect potential investors’ perceptions on the prospect of the listing or the issuer if it is made before the bookbuilding process. As such, we consider that it would make the most commercial sense to require the Mechanism Choice be made only during the pricing stage, in order to achieve its purpose and to minimize the effect of the Mechanism Choice on investors’ perception.

Question 11.2

Do you agree with the proposal to require Specialist Technology Companies to only adopt the existing initial allocation and clawback mechanism designed for them, i.e. Mechanism A (as set out in paragraph 251 of the Consultation Paper)?
